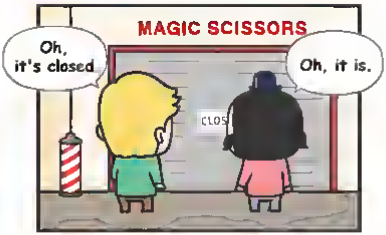
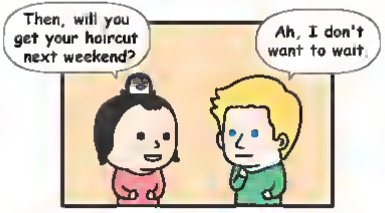
Personal Barber



A few months ago,
Mev went to a barber shop but the shop had clased, Mev couldn't get his haircut.



As Mev felt like his hair was messy..

. . they bought some inexpensive electric hair clippers so he could cut his hair himself.

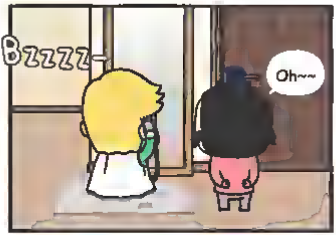
The hair clipper had 4 different grade options,
Mev chose grade 3.



I was watching Mev
while he was cutting his hair

While Mev was cutting,
he asked Penguin for help.

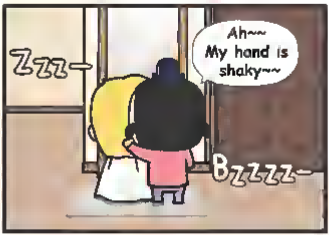
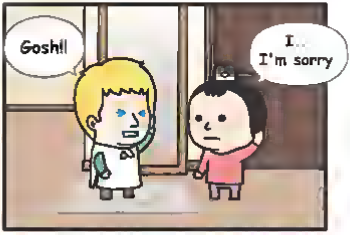
I have always had a romantic feeling about a wife giving her husband a haircut
so I got the clippers from Mev.

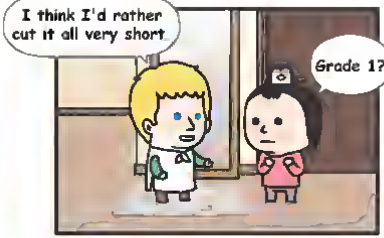


I moved my hand corefully.

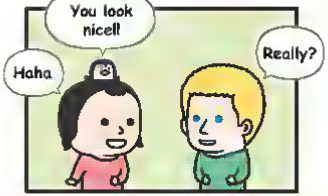
But I made mistakes and trimmed a short patch an the back of his head.



The patch was very visible.

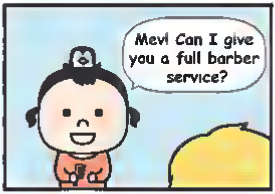


Finally,
he shoved all of his hair to grade 1.



Luckily, the short hair suited Mev.

After that, my skill was getting better day by day. I became his personal barber.



Then one day, I wanted to treat Mev with my best service.

First I gave him a haircut then shaved his beard like a profissianal barber

After I finished shaving,
Mev's untidy wild eyebrows caught my eye

I thought they would look nicer
if I gave them a little trim
So I put my eyebrow razor on his eyebrow

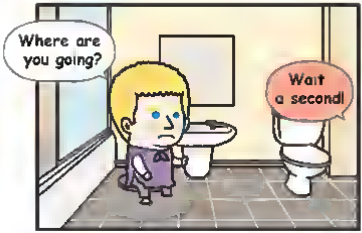
But I made a mistake again!

I felt so sorry for Mev,
I tried to find a solution quickly

Finally I had an idea.

The idea was to shave his eyebrow short like they did for his hair.

Mev's scream banged on my head so I had a second idea



A short time later...

It's perfect!
The problem has been solved!

" No.... "

My eyebrows are not shade 2 dark brown...

You're fired!
OK
